This search report consists of a total of 3 sheets.

☒ It is also accompanied by a copy of each prior art document cited in this report.

1. ☐ Certain claims were found unsearchable (See Box I)
2. ☐ Unity of invention is lacking (See Box II)
3. ☐ The application contains disclosure of a nucleotide and/or amine acid sequence listing and the search was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing
 - ☐ filed with the application
 - ☐ furnished by the applicant separately from the application,
 - ☐ but not accompanied by a statement to the effect that it did not include matter going beyond the disclosure in application as filed
4. With regard to the title,
 - ☒ the text is approved as submitted by the applicant.
 - ☐ the text has been established by this Office to read as follows:
5. With regard to the abstract,
 - ☒ the text is approved as submitted by the applicant
 - ☐ the text has been established by this Office as it appears in Box III
6. The figure of the drawings to be published with the abstract is Figure No.
 - ☐ as suggested by the applicant.
 - ☒ 6 because the applicant failed to suggest a figure
 - ☐ because this figure better characterises the invention
 - ☐ None of the figures

* Special categories of cited documents:

"A" document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

"E" earlier application or patent but published on or after the international filing date

"L" document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

"O" document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

"P" document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

"T" later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

"X" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

"Y" document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art

"&" document member of the same patent family

AUSTRALIAN PATENT OFFICE
WRITTEN OPINION

Application No.
SG 200506106-4

I. Basis of the opinion

1. This opinion has been drawn on the basis of:

- ☒ the application as originally filed.
- ☐ the description, pages , as originally filed,
pages , filed with the request,
pages , received on with the letter of
- ☐ the claims, pages , as originally filed,
pages , filed with the request,

IV. Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	YES
	Claims 1-7	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	YES
	Claims 1-7	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-7	YES
	Claims	NO

2. Citations and explanations

Novelty (N) and Inventive Step (IS) claims 1-7

Citations: (1) EP 300282

(2) JP 2004-091397

Both of citations 1 and 2 disclose compositions containing silymarin, both compositions are for topical use on the skin. Both citations also disclose that the compositions can be used to counteract skin degenerative and aging phenomena, that is promote the production of collagen or elastin in the skin or at least slow their degeneration.

Claims 1-7 are not novel and lack an inventive step when compared to citation 1. This would also be the case with citation 2, except that this document was published 2 days after the present filing date.
